CHILL OUT....READ A GOOD BOOK!

ANN EDWARDS CANNON

Ann Edwards Cannon was born in Salt Lake City and raised in Provo where she earned both a BA and MA in English at Brigham Young University. She was the winner of the Delacorte Press Prize for an outstanding first young adult novel and has published a number of books for children and young adults. She has also written non-fiction for regional and national publications.

Currently, Ann writes a weekly column for the Salt Lake Tribune and works as an occasional bookseller at the King's English. In her spare time she likes to read and garden. In fact, she once had a goal to grow one of everything that ever killed someone in an English murder mystery. She is married to Ken Cannon. They have five sons, two daughters-in-law, two grandchildren, and a dog that weighs 200 pounds. (Seriously.)
